

How did the Pilgrims spend their first Christmas?

They worked. Christmas came on a Monday that year. And Monday was just another working day.

The Pilgrims did not believe in having a Christmas holiday.

So for the Pilgrim children, there were no Christmas trees, no Christmas stockings, no Christmas presents, and no Christmas songs.

But the sailors had a good time. They sang and drank beer.

