

What rules did people have to obey?

Everyone had to obey the rules made by the leaders of Plymouth.

The most important rule was going to church on Sunday. Everyone had to go.

Everyone had to work hard.

It was a crime to get drunk.

And stealing was a crime.

