

Would you be able to keep clean?

You would not be able to keep clean. There were no bathrooms on the Mayflower. If you wanted to wash, you would have to wash in salty water from the sea.

Most likely you would wear the same clothes day after day, night after night, for sixty-six days and nights.

At the end of the long voyage, your clothes would be torn and dirty—and smelly too.

