

Would you have had any fun on the Mayflower?

It might be fun to watch the sailors. And you could play with the dogs. There were at least two dogs on board.

And there was a cat. Every ship had a cat to catch the rats.

There were plenty of books to read—if you liked grown-up books. One of the Pilgrim leaders, William Brewster, brought along many books.

If you liked to sing, you would have fun singing. The Pilgrims sang psalms—religious songs—every day.
